

September 2, 2010

Purdue Forage Management Day Itinerary

(Annual Purdue Crop Diagnostic Training and Research Center sponsored day)

- 8:00 to 8:30 a.m. Check in at Beck Agricultural Center; park in lot next to Beck Ag Center
- 8:30 Welcome and Introductions Corey Gerber, Director
- 8:45 Selecting Quality Seed? Larry Nees, Seed Administrator
Office of the Indiana State Chemist
- 9:30 Seed Calibration Brad Shelton
Washington County Extension Educator
- 10:15 Break and board shuttle to Diagnostic Training Center plots
- 10:30 Attributes of Different Forage Species Keith Johnson, Forage Crops Specialist
- 11:30 Making Quality Hay and Silage Dennis Buckmaster
Agricultural and Biological Engineering
- 12:15 p.m. Lunch and visit tradeshow along with Purdue Forage Day participants
- 1:00 Awards program Indiana Forage Council representative
- 1:15 Beef and Dairy Research Topics of Interest to Forage Producers
(Attend either Dairy or Beef)
Shawn Donkin, Purdue University Dairy Scientist
Ron Lemenager, Purdue University Beef Specialist
- 2:00 Problematic Weeds and Their Control
Bill Johnson or Glenn Nice, Weed Specialist
- 2:45 Break
- 3:00 Appraising Hay and Pasture Keith Johnson, Forage Crops Specialist
- 4:00 Evaluation of Training

